   Note:
   U.S. Citizen or Resident Alien

   A W-9 is required if the human subject is receiving payment for the first time and not collected in Penn’s W-9 repository or not listed as a “supplier” in Penn’s Accounts Payable system, or the subject has a name or address change.

   b. It is the responsibility of the Principal Investigator (PI) to collect a completed W-9 from each U.S. Citizen or Resident Alien IF at any time either at the beginning of each research study/clinical trial or during the course of the research study, it is recognized that the human subject will receive a total of $600 or more in a calendar year as remuneration. At the end of the calendar year the PI must submit a summary worksheet (http://www.finance.upenn.edu/comptroller/Forms/#Accounts_Payable) of petty cash and/or gift card payments and the relevant W-9s for individuals receiving $600 or more to the Disbursement group. Greenphire ClinCard coordinators are required to send their clearly marked Greenphire W-9s to Accounts Payable to be scanned into the Penn W-9 repository. They will also have the ability to search file name to see if a W-9 is already on file, and if it is, there is no need to collect another.

c. It is the responsibility of the PI to collect the necessary paperwork from each Nonresident Alien IF at any time either at the beginning of each research study/clinical trial or during the course of the research study, it is recognized that the human subject will receive a total more than $100.

Note:
This process does not apply if the IRB has approved a waiver of informed consent and no identifiers of the human subject are collected.

3. For employees who participate as a human subject:
   o Stipends to research participants are not considered additional wages. These payments will not be reflected on the employee’s W2; however an employee who receives more than $600 in a calendar year will receive a 1099 form in addition to the employee’s W2.

4. Privacy of Medical and Protected Health Information (PHI), personal data, and social security numbers

a. PHI and Data – It is the responsibility of the PI to ensure that information collected and forwarded to Accounts Payable for purposes of remuneration of a human subject does not link the subject to the research study by title, include medical information, diagnostic information, medical/personal information, or other PHI protected by law. Payment documentation must identify the fund number from which remuneration will be paid, the name of the human subject, social security number, and amount of remuneration. No further information is required for IRS purposes.

b. Social Security Numbers – It is the responsibility of the PI to ensure that potentially sensitive data is protected. The following steps must be taken to help ensure privacy:
   1. The W-9 forms (for non-BEN/non-Greenphire ClinCard disbursements accumulating $600 or more) should be kept in a secure location and at the end of the calendar year sent to the Disbursements group, accompanied by the summary worksheet (http://www.finance.upenn.edu/comptroller/Forms/#Accounts_Payable).
   2. Participants’ Social Security number should not be kept on a local desktop, laptop, or other computing device.

   • Ensuring that all human subjects are informed during the consent process (verbal or written) of the human subject’s responsibility of reporting human subject remuneration to the IRS.
   • Documenting the number of human subjects and payments to those human subjects in studies where the human subject remains anonymous (where the IRB has approved a waiver of consent) or no identifiable information is collected.
