Object Code Rules

Last Updated: 07/21/2023

Workday – Object Code Configuration Rules

All Object Codes (for both Expense and Liabilities) are set up in Workday as Ledger Accounts.

Rules for Object Codes can be set up using the following fields:

- Total FTE% on Worker (benefits will be using this. FT benefits will be offered if FTE% \geq 87.5%)
- Position Worker Type (employee type - Academic, Staff, Postdoctoral, Student, Temporary)
- Job Profile or Job Category
- Pay Group (weekly, monthly, academic)
- Time Type (full-time/part-time)
- Account Segments
 - Penn Cost Center (Ben Financial Org)
 - Penn Fund (Ben Financial Fund)
 - Penn Program (Ben Financials Prog)
 - Penn CREF (Ben Financials CREF) – entered as XX-YYYY where XX is School/Center

 PT benefits will be offered to those eligible with an FTE% between 43.5% and 87.5%. FT Benefits \geq 87.5% FTE*

Students and Temporary Workers are NOT eligible for FT Benefits.

As of 7/1/2023 – new non-NRSA Postdoc Benefits / EB (designated in document as EB: PDoc)

Workday – Object Code Configuration Rules

Object Code Rules can NOT be based on:

- SSN Limit
- Benefits acceptance including ACA Benefits Acceptance

Two New Program Numbers to Assist with Object Code Logic:

- New Program 3020 for CPUP earnings.
 - To determine how to assign 1511/1258 (CPUP EB) vs. 1522/1252 (FT EB)
 - Details included on “Workday - CPUP/CHOP Pay and CPUP Clinical Rate” slide in Object Code Logic Section
- New Program 5406 for Nursing interfund.
 - To determine how to assign 1252
 - Details included on “Accounts for Interfund – Outside of CPUP earnings” slide in Object Code Logic Section

Object Code Logic

Workday – Accounts for CPUP/CHOP Pay and CPUP Clinical Rate

- CPUP Earnings only allowed on CPUP Academic Jobs (315071) or Penn Medicine Clinician Jobs (110193)
- PSOM must use interfund (014003). Dental must use ORG 5194
- Lines outside of Dental (5194), or PSOM (014003) will follow regular Monthly/Academic rules (e.g. 5110 for FT Penn med clinicians)
